PREFACE

In the year 1873 the Rev. Joseph Hall published a work entitled The Wesleyan Methodist Itinerancy; or, an Alphabetical Arrangement of the Circuits in Great Britain, with the names of the ministers who have travelled in them each year from the commencement. A second edition of this work was issued in the year 1885 with the title Hall's Circuits and Ministers, an Alphabetical List, etc. The third edition was published in the year 1897, with an Appendix containing the names of ministers stationed in the various circuits and appointed to the various departments from 1886 to 1896.

Mr. Hall died in 1902, and his obituary in the Minutes of Conference for that year contains this record—"He loved the Methodist Church, and served its interests in a unique way by the publication of An Alphabetical List of Circuits."

In the earlier editions of the work Mr. Hall published a list of appointments prior to the year 1765 as follows :

"THE following are copied from notes of certain Conferences, preserved in the handwriting of the late Rev. John Jones, which were in possession of the Rev. Joseph Hargreaves,"—Minutes, Vol. I., pub. 1862.

We reprint the details as they were given in our last edition, adding the name of John Jones to Cornwall, to which Circuit, as well as to Bristol, he was appointed in 1749.

The Rev. Francis F. Bretherton, B.A., tells the Editor that Mr. Hall's prefatory note requires to be amended in two particulars. Firstly, the manuscript in question, the property at present of Mr. George Stampe, of Great Grimsby, is in the hand-writing of Wesley himself, and not of John Jones, the former owner. The Appendix referred to above went astray on that point. (See Bennet Minutes, p. 5). Secondly, the particulars for 1753 were derived from the second manuscript given in the Appendix, written by Jacob Rowell (see Revised Minutes, 1862, p. 714.)

The Rowell Manuscript also notes a Conference held at Limerick in 1752, when Joseph Cownley, John Fisher, Thomas Walsh, Jacob Rowell, Thomas Kead, R. Swindells, John Fenwick, Paul Greenwood, James Morris and John Edwards, were appointed to labour in Ireland, apparently changing circuits once a quarter.

In 1896 the Wesley Historical Society issued its first Publication (as distinct from its quarterly Proceedings). This consisted of John Bennet's copy of the Minutes of the Conferences of 1744, 1745, 1747 and 1748, with Wesley's copy of those for 1746. This important pamphlet enables us to include in this edition details earlier than 1749, the earliest date mentioned in the last edition.

In the Minutes of the first Conference, held in 1744, the "Stations" appear in the most elementary form.

"Shall we now fix where each labourer shall be (if God permits) till we meet again?"

Yes : (which was accordingly done)."

In 1745 no stationing details are given.

In 1746 the question is "How are our Circuits now divided? Into seven.

1. LONDON, which includes Surrey, Kent, Essex, Brentford, Egham, Windsor, Wycombe.
2. BRISTOL, which includes Somerset, Portland, Wilts, Oxfordshire, Gloucestershire.
3. CORNWALL.
4. EVESHAM, which includes Shrewsbury, Leominster, Hereford, and from Stroud to Wednesbury.
5. YORKSHIRE, which includes Cheshire, Lancashire, Derbyshire, Nottinghamshire, Rutlandshire, Lincolnshire.
6. NEWCASTLE.
7. WALES.

Arrangements were made for supplying these extensive "Rounds" for the ensuing quarter.

In the Conference held in June, 1747, the workers were appointed to their respective spheres till the next Christmas.

In 1748 the country was mapped out into nine main Methodist divisions.

- i. LONDON : including 1. London itself ; 2. Kent and Surrey ; 3. Essex ; 4. Brentford ; 5. Windsor ; 6. Wycombe ; 7. Oxford ; 8. Reading ; 9. Blewbury ; 10. Salisbury.
- ii. BRISTOL : including 1. Bristol itself ; 2. Kingswood ; 3. Bath ; 4. Bearfield ; 5. The Devizes ; 6. Road ; 7. Coleford ; 8. Oakhill ; 9. Shepton Mallard ; 10. Middlesey ; 11. Beercrocomb ; 12. Taunton.
- iii. CORNWALL : including 1. Tavistock ; 2. Plymouth Dock ; 3. Truint ; 4. St. Tue ; 5. Gwennap ; 6. St. Agnes ; 7. Illogan, etc. ; 8. St. Ives. ; 9. The Western Societies.
- iv. IRELAND : including 1. Dublin ; 2. Phillip's Town ; 3. Tullamore ; 4. Tyrrill's Pass ; 5. Billiboy ; 6. Athlone.
- v. WALES : including 1. Cardiff ; 2. Fonmon ; 3. Lanmais, etc. ; 4. Lamission.
- vi. STAFFORDSHIRE : including 1. Stroud ; 2. Cirencester ; 3. Hanley ; 4. Evesham ; 5. Wednesbury ; 6. Shrewsbury ; 7. Leominster.
- vii. CHESHIRE : including 1. Cheshire itself ; 2. Nottingham ; 3. Derbyshire ; 4. Lancashire ; 5. Sheffield, etc.
- viii. YORKSHIRE : including 1. Leeds ; 2. Birstal ; 3. Keighley ; 4. Acomb ; 5. Sykehouse ; 6. Epworth ; 7. Hainton ; 8. Grimsby ; 9. The Fens.
- ix. NEWCASTLE : including 1. Osmotherley ; 2. Newcastle itself ; 3. Sunderland ; 4. Biddick ; 5. Burnep Fields ; 6. Spen ; 7. Swallowell ; 8. Horseley ; 9. Plessey ; 10. Berwick-upon-Tweed.

N.B.—The spellings above are given without correction.

It would be possible from various scattered records and memoirs, printed and unprinted, to extend the list of early appointments, but that is beyond the purview of this work.

The usefulness of the last edition of the Alphabetical Arrangement was discounted by the fact that the later years were given in an Appendix. In the present edition the whole work has been set in entirely new type, so that the list for each circuit is complete in itself and continuous. This has greatly increased the cost of the work but has added much to its value. The twin records—"Hall" and "Hill"—are now both brought down to the Conference of 1912, and give a bird's-eye view of Wesleyan Methodism from its commencement to the present time such as can be obtained nowhere else.

The editor of the present edition of Circuits and Ministers desires to acknowledge very gratefully the valuable help he has received in what has proved an unexpectedly arduous undertaking—albeit a labour of love—from his son, Christopher Topham Hartley, and from the Rev. Charles L. Tabraham, a Brother-Minister, whose friendly co-operation has been of the greatest possible service in bringing the work to completion.

REMARKS.—For years in the early minutes the Irish returns are not separated from those of Great Britain.

The three Secessions affecting the returns are the New Connexion (1797), the Methodist Association (1834), and the Wesleyan Reform Association (1849).
